The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 30, to Tuesday July 2, 1792.

Whitehall, July 3.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Monmouth, humbly beg Leave to teſtify to your Majeſty our warm and grateful Thanks for the recent Proof of your Majeſty's invariable Attention to the Happineſs of your People in iſſuing your Majeſty's Royal and moſt Gracious Proclamation for ſuppreſſing the Attempts that have been made to weaken, in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, a Reverence to the Laws, and an Attachment to the happy Form of Government eſtabliſhed in this Kingdom, and which it gives us the moſt heartfelt Satisfaction to ſee ſupported by every Branch of your Majeſty's Royal Family.

Penetrated with the trueſt Senſe of the numerous and increaſing Advantages which we now enjoy by the diſtinguiſhed Favour of Divine Providence, and fully convinced that real Liberty can only exiſt under the Protection of Law and the Authority of efficient and regular Government, and feeling the beſt grounded Hopes of the long Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, in the Wiſdom, Juſtice and Moderation of your Majeſty, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous Attachment to the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, of our unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, of our firm Determination to cheriſh and promote a Spirit of Obedience to the Laws, and of our utmoſt Vigilance and Activity to prevent every Attempt to diſturb good Order and Public Tranquillity.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Warwick.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave to expreſs the grateful Senſe we entertain of the freſh Proof your Majeſty has been pleaſed to afford of your watchful Solicitude for the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects in iſſuing your Royal Proclamation for the Repreſſion of all wicked and ſeditious Writings, induſtriouſly diſperſed for the Purpoſe of exciting Tumults, of leſſening the Reſpect due to legal Government, and undermining our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

The Benefits of well-regulated Freedom, and of a mild and equal Adminiſtration of the Laws, have, we truſt, made a deep and laſting Impreſſion on the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, and are felt ſo ſenſibly in all the Relations of Life, that every good Citizen will uſe his honeſt Diligence to diſcourage and counteract all Attempts to diſturb the Public Mind and ſubvert the general Tranquillity and good Order of Government. The Credit, the Commerce, the Strength and Proſperity of the Britiſh Empire, depend upon the Preſervation of that Conſtitution, which has been cemented with the Blood of our Anceſtors, and which, actuated with equal Zeal, it is our Duty to tranſmit, unimpaired, to Poſterity.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, exert ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Power, not only to defend the Conſtitution of our Country againſt the Attacks of open or ſecret Enemies, but to preſerve the Public Tranquillity, (ſo eſſential to general Happineſs) by diſcouraging and endeavouring to prevent all riotous and tumultuous Aſſemblies, on whatever Pretences they may be excited, not doubting but that your Majeſty's anxious Care for the Welfare of your Subjects will be ſeconded by the united Zeal of a loyal and affectionate People.

Signed by the Order of and for a Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the ſaid County, held at the County Hall at Warwick the 25th Day of June, 1792.

Joſeph Oughton, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of your ancient City of Rocheſter, beg Leave to offer our moſt heartfelt Acknowledgements for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection of your faithful People manifeſted in your late Royal Proclamation.

Venerating, as we moſt ſincerely do, our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, as ſettled at the Time of the Glorious Revolution, and conſcious of the Bleſſings (greater than were ever before experienced in theſe Kingdoms) which we, and our Fathers, for more than a Century, have enjoyed under it, we are animated with moſt hearty Zeal to maintain and to deliver it down unimpaired to our Poſterity.

On this Account we cannot but teſtify our Abhorrence of the many wicked and ſeditious Publications that have been ſo induſtriouſly diſperſed throughout the Kingdom, calculated to diſturb the Peace and Happineſs of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, to weaken their Obedience to the wholeſome Proviſions of Law and Government, and to alienate their Minds from a due Senſe of the Bleſſings they enjoy.

Under ſuch Circumſtances, conceiving it to be the Duty of every good and loyal Subject to exert his utmoſt Endeavours for the Preſervation of Public Tranquillity, we profeſs ourſelves determined, in our ſeveral Stations, to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to render efficacious your Majeſty's gracious Intentions.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of June, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Dumbarton.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to tender unto your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for your paternal Attention to the Welfare and Tranquillity of your Subjects; and whilſt we regard with the utmoſt Deteſtation every Attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of this Nation, we humbly preſume to expreſs our firmeſt Hope, that your Majeſty's late Proclamation will awaken the Vigilance of the Civil Magiſtrate to the Exertion of thoſe Powers veſted in him by the Conſtitution, for the Suppreſſion of whatever may tend to diſturb the good Government of theſe Kingdoms, or interfere with the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

That your Majeſty may long rule over a free and happy People, and enjoy the Bleſſings which ariſe from a Conſciouſneſs of having faithfully diſcharged the arduous Duties of your high and exalted Station, is our ſincere Prayer and moſt ardent Wiſh.

Elphinſtone, Chairman.

Dumbarton, June 21, 1792.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwiſe Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall, requeſt Permiſſion to approach your Throne with our ſincere and grateful Acknowledgements of that paternal Solicitude for the Welfare of your Subjects, and the Security of our glorious Conſtitution, ſo evidently manifeſted by your laſt Royal Proclamation. The ſeditious and inflammatory Writings, which have lately been ſo induſtriouſly diſperſed throughout this Kingdom, for the Purpoſes of exciting Tumult and Diſorder, and raiſing in the Minds of your faithful and loving Subjects Jealouſies and Diſcontents, will, we truſt, be diſcountenanced by all Ranks of People, when they recollect, that under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, their Conſtitutional Rights have been maintained, their Proſperity conſulted, and their beſt Intereſt ſecured.

Happy in the Enjoyment of our preſent Portion of Religious and Civil Liberty, we dread the Reſult of any Innovation, and have no Wiſh to adopt novel Syſtems of Legiſlation and Government, nor the leaſt Inclination to abandon real Good for the Proſpect of imaginary Bleſſings.

Every Exertion in our Power will therefore be employed to fruſtrate thoſe wild and chimerical Deſigns which have lately been projected by evil-minded Perſons, and to render abortive all Attempts tending to diſſeminate Principles ſubverſive of our Conſtitution, both in Church and State, as ſettled at the Time of the Glorious Revolution.

That your Majeſty may long reign over this great and free Nation, and that your People may ever enjoy thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings which they at preſent poſſeſs, is, Sire, the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's dutiful and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, in Common Council aſſembled, beſeech your Majeſty to accept our humble Thanks for your great Wiſdom, exerciſed during the Courſe of a propitious Reign; and particularly for your late Royal Proclamation, for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publications and criminal Correſpondences.

Your faithful Subjects, happy under a Government which fills the reſt of the World with Admiration, humbly hope that every Attempt to infringe upon the glorious Conſtitution will be prevented by your Majeſty's wiſe Endeavours, and that the Stratagems of ambitious and deſigning Men will meet with that Contempt they deſerve.

Senſible of the Bleſſings enjoyed by this Nation, we humbly wiſh for a Continuation of them, and join in the general Prayer, that your Majeſty may long happily reign over a loyal People.

Signed by Order of Court, and the Town Seal appended, this 20th Day of June, 1792.

A. Gordon, Provoſt.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, July 3.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of a General Meeting of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Juſtices of Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Berwick, held at Greenlaw on Wedneſday the 20th of June, 1792.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majeſty thoſe genuine Sentiments of Duty and Attachment, which it is the peculiar Privilege of the Sovereign of this Country to receive from a free, a loyal, and an affectionate People, and to return our ſincere and cordial Thanks for the new Inſtance which the late Royal Proclamation affords of your Majeſty's Attention to the Quiet, the Security, and the Happineſs of your Kingdom.

On that public Security and Happineſs we ſet too juſt a Value not to behold, with Regret and Indignation, any Attempt to ſubvert or diſturb the mild and ſalutary Government under which we poſſeſs them. We revere the Wiſdom, while we enjoy the Bleſſings of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and we are happy to think that we ſhall evince our Patriotiſm as much as our Loyalty in co-operating, by every Means in our Power, with your Majeſty's gracious Endeavours to defend and ſupport it. In the preſent highly proſperous State of the Country, while we have the Satisfaction to ſee it's Commerce extended, it's Manufactures flouriſhing, it's growing Wealth, and increaſed Reſources, we feel it particularly incumbent on us, in Conjunction with every good Citizen, to reſiſt any Infringement, by the Folly of raſh or the Wickedneſs of deſigning Men, on that good Order and legal Authority, from which we derive ſo uncommon a Share of National Freedom and Felicity.

Signed by our Præſes in our Preſence, and by our Appointment,

Home.

[Tranſmitted by Patrick Home, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Halifax, in the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our unfeigned Thanks for the fatherly Attention ſhewn to your People in your late gracious Proclamation.

We are thankful for the Bleſſings of a moſt excellent Conſtitution, and are ſenſible that it is our Duty, as good Subjects and good Citizens, to diſcourage and ſuppreſs every artful and turbulent Deſign of Sedition or Diſcontent, and every viſionary Scheme of Innovation.

For theſe Reaſons we ſolemnly declare to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of the dangerous Doctrines lately propagated and defended, as thoſe Doctrines can have no other Tendency than to miſlead the unthinking Multitude, and to diminiſh that Allegiance which they juſtly owe to your Majeſty, and that Submiſſion and Obedience which they owe to the State; and we requeſt Leave to declare our earneſt Zeal for your Majeſty's Happineſs and Proſperity, and our Readineſs to promote, to the utmoſt of our Power, the Welfare of your Government.

Signed and ſealed by Order of a very numerous General Meeting, previouſly called by public Advertiſement.

H. W. Coulthurſt, D. D. Vicar of Halifax, Chairman.

[Tranſmitted by Henry Duncombe, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenters of the City of Worceſter, convened by public Notice in Angel-ſtreet Chapel, June 18, 1792.

SIRE!

PERMIT your faithful Subjects, the Proteſtant Diſſenters of the City of Worceſter, to approach your Throne with Sentiments of ſincere Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, as well as to that Civil Conſtitution for which our Anceſtors have often bled, and under which we enjoy (ſince your Majeſty's Acceſſion) an important Increaſe of legal Privileges, deſerving of our Gratitude, and encouraging to our Hopes of more extenſive Benefits.

Conſcious of Loyalty as pure, and with Intentions as upright, we are happy in uniting with many of the moſt reſpectable Friends of Liberty and Order, to thank your Majeſty for the paternal Solicitude expreſſed in your late Proclamation, to guard this highly favoured Country againſt the Miſchiefs of Sedition and Violence; and we are particularly thankful for the Aſſurance of equal Protection to all your obedient loyal People, in their Perſons, Property, and Rights, Civil and Religious.

To this Protection we, and our Brethren, in every Emergence, always chearfully reſort; and from the Experience of this we ſhall all derive freſh Motives of ſteady Allegiance and united Zeal in the Cauſe of legitimate Government and the Tranquillity of our Country.

While the equitable Adminiſtration of Law is thus royally patronized and recommended, we cannot but pray and hope, that your Majeſty may receive the hearty Concurrence and Support, not only of inferior Magiſtrates but of all good Men; and that (under the Divine Bleſſing) you may long continue to reign in Peace the Friend and Father, as well as Sovereign, of an enlightened, free and proſperous Nation.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

George Oſborn, Chairman.

[Tranſmitted by E. Wigley, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for that City.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tregoney, entreat your Majeſty to accept our dutiful and ſincere Thanks for your Majeſty's parental Attention to the Peace and Happineſs of your People, by iſſuing the late Proclamation: We hope it will check the dangerous Aſſociations formed, and ſtop the Publications circulated in your Majeſty's Kingdom by wicked and diſcontented People, intended to diſturb the Public Peace, and to ſhake and impair our preſent free and happy Conſtitution. We declare to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of ſuch Meaſures, Meaſures, and will by every Exertion in our Power preſerve Peace, Order, and a due Submiſſion to the Laws, which under your Majeſty's benign Government, ſo well ſecure our Rights, and give Liberty, Peace and Happineſs to a grateful and loyal Nation.

[Tranſmitted by R. Barwell, Eſq;.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Borough-Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of New Malton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Borough-Bailiff and Burgeſſes of New Malton, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our ſincere Thanks for your Majeſty's Attention to the Peace and Happineſs of this Country by your late Proclamation, and to aſſure you that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours to diſcountenance all inflammatory Libels, and check every Tendency to Sedition.

When we compare our Government with reſpect to others, or our preſent Situation with that of any preceding Time, we look up with Thankfulneſs and Gratitude for our ſuperior Bleſſings, and hold in Horror and Deteſtation thoſe turbulent Spirits, who would deprive us of that mild Conſtitution by which we are protected, and under which we flouriſh.

Be pleaſed to accept our unfeigned Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long reign over a People truly ſenſible of their own Happineſs, which, great as it is, appears with additional Luſtre, when contraſted with the unhappy Diſorders of a neighbouring Nation.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we are fully determined to oppoſe all Anarchy and Tumult with the ſame Zeal and Reſolution that we would the uſurped Deſpotiſm of a ſingle Tyrant; being fully convinced that Freedom does not conſiſt in Licentiouſneſs, but in a ſtrict Obedience to mild and juſt Laws.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Honourable Edmund Burke, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Alderman and Aſſiſtants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks for your Majeſty's late Proclamation.

We alſo regard it as our Duty on this Occaſion to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as we highly reverence our preſent happy Conſtitution, both in Church and State, ſo we do greatly diſapprove of the Conduct of thoſe reſtleſs and ambitious Men, who, under the Pretence of Reform, are making every Effort to overturn and utterly deſtroy it.

Our utmoſt Exertions to render ineffectual ſuch Attempts ſhall not be wanting; and we will, as far as in us lies, ſupport that Conſtitution under which we enjoy every Bleſſing and every Comfort which a wiſe and good Government can adminiſter to it's Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the 28th Day of June, in the Thirty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Tranſmitted by Wade Browne, Eſq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt unfeigned Thanks for the late Inſtance of your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, ſhewn to us in your Royal Proclamation.

Happy under the mild Government of your Majeſty, and ſincerely attached to the Conſtitution of our Country, which we earneſtly wiſh to preſerve unimpaired, we have obſerved, with the utmoſt Concern, ſome late wicked Attempts to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies and Diſcontents in the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, by the Publication of Principles which tend to the Subverſion of all Government, and to the Deſtruction of the Peace and Order of Society.

We beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of all ſuch criminal and wicked Attempts, and to aſſure your Majeſty that we will promote, to the utmoſt of our Power and Influence, Principles of Allegiance to your Majeſty, and Confidence in the Wiſdom and Integrity of Parliament, and of Submiſſion and Obedience to the Laws of our Country.

Signed by Order of the Meeting,

Wade Browne, Chairman.

Dreading the Miſeries that harraſs a neighbouring Kingdom, and conſcious of the Happineſs we enjoy under our preſent Conſtitution and your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, we ſhould be unworthy of theſe Bleſſings if we did not publickly declare our Gratitude to Divine Providence, our Attachment to your Majeſty, and Abhorrence of thoſe Principles that tend to Anarchy and Confuſion.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we preſume to aſſure your Majeſty that we will endeavour, by every Method in our Power, to encourage Loyalty to your Majeſty, due Subordination to the Laws, and Order and Tranquillity amongſt our Fellow Subjects.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Harwich, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, to offer our moſt ſincere and unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's parental Care for the Security of our preſent happy Conſtitution by your late moſt gracious Proclamation. From a due Senſe of the Moderation and Wiſdom of your Government, that uniform Regard to our Laws and Conſtitution, that Integrity with which your Engagements are fulfilled, and that Firmneſs and Reſolution with which your Councils

It is with the utmoſt Regret and Amazement we obſerve the leaſt Tendency to diſturb that Peace and Tranquillity ſo firmly eſtabliſhed and ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and happy Reign; and bound as we are by every Tie of Duty and Intereſt, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unſhaken Fidelity and inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and that every Exertion in our Power ſhall be made to promote the Deſigns of your Majeſty's Proclamation. With the moſt fervent Prayers for your Majeſty's Health and Length of Days, we are your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Land-tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Land-tax of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Aſſurances of our warmeſt Gratitude for the recent Inſtance of your paternal Care and Attention to the Welfare and Heppineſs of your People in iſſuing the Proclamation for ſuppreſſing ſeditious Publtcations, and exerting your Authority for preventing or checking the Efforts of the malicious and deſigning Enemies of our preſent ineſtimable Conſtitution of Government, firſt eſtabliſhed at the Glorious Revolution, and ſince ſo wiſely and ſteadily adminiſtered and ſupported by your Majeſty and your Royal Anceſtors.

Strongly impreſſed with a Senſe of the preſent Happineſs and Proſperity of the Country, unequalled in this or any other Kingdom or Period, we are determined to concur with and ſtrengthen the Hands of Government, in reſtraining the Diſturbers of the Public Tranquillity, and in preſerving Peace and good Order to the utmoſt of our Power.

That your Majeſty may long continue to govern, with your wonted Juſtice and Benignity, a free, obedient and happy People, is our moſt ardent Wiſh and Prayer.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our warmeſt Acknowledgments for your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Happineſs and Tranquillity of your Subjects.

We have obſerved with great Concern the pernicious Attempts that have been made to unſettle the Minds of your People, by ſpecious Arguments and wild Theories, tending to ſhake their Attachment to that Conſtitution, which has for Ages been the Admiration of the World, and whoſe Benefits are now ſo fully manifeſted by the Alacrity with which all Deſcriptions of Perſons come forward in it's Support.

In Times ſo peculiarly circumſtanced as the preſent, we feel ourſelves bound to uſe our moſt vigilant Endeavours to preſerve the public Peace and Tranquillity, to defeat the Machinations of ſeditious evil-minded Perſons, who may endeavour to introduce Syſtems productive only of Anarchy and Confuſion, and thereby prevent our handing down to our Poſterity the Bleſſings we ſo truly enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and proſperous Government.

It will be, Sire, our earneſt Prayer, that your Majeſty may long reign over a free, happy and united People.

Given under our Common Seal, at a Special called Common Day, held this 30th Day of June, 1792.
